

Geography Knowledge Building

Know that radio masts and telegraph posts have changed the appearance of places over time and give examples	Know why TV studios are mainly located in built-up, heavily populated areas	Know why coastal areas were key locations for sending naval messages using beacons	Know and understand the words 'populated' and 'urban'	Know where Greece is located and find Athens and Marathon on a map	Know why the Native Americans' location meant that smoke signals were a good way for them to send messages
Know that radio masts and telegraph posts are used for communication purposes nowadays	Know where the nearest TV studio and / or radio station is located	Know the significance of hills for sending messages using beacons	Know and understand the words 'near' and 'far'	Know where their national TV studios are located and find the city on a map	Know why church bells were a good way of sending messages in Europe
Know that places change over time and that there is often a range of evidence to show this	Know some human geographical features in the focus area and describe them	Know some physical geographical features in the focus area and describe them	Know and understand simple vocabulary related to place	Name and locate some key places in their own country and countries in the wider world	Identify basic similarities and differences between a range of locations and environments
Processes and Changes	Human Geography	Physical Geography	Geographical Vocabulary	Locations and Environments	Similarities and Differences

Inter-Nation Media Station