

Geography Knowledge Building

Know that places change over time and give some reasons for this	Name some of the key human geographical features in the food-producing country	Name some of the key physical geographical features in the food-producing country	Know and understand the words 'valley', 'coast', 'aerial view' and 'capital city'	Know the capital cities of the four countries that make up the UK and locate them	Know how the food being studied is transported from its country of origin to this country
Know that we can use photographs to look at how places change	Name some of the key human geographical features in the UK	Name some of the key physical geographical features in the UK	Know and understand simple compass directions: North, South, East and West	Know the four countries that make up the UK and locate them on a map	Know how the climate differs in the food-producing country you are studying
Know that places change over time and that there is often a range of evidence to show this	Know some human geographical features in the focus area and describe them	Know some physical geographical features in the focus area and describe them	Know and understand simple vocabulary related to place	Name and locate some key places in their own country and countries in the wider world	Identify basic similarities and differences between a range of locations and environments
Processes and Changes	Human Geography	Physical Geography	Geographical Vocabulary	Locations and Environments	Similarities and Differences

Never Eat Shredded Wheat