

Geography Knowledge Building

Know that Google Earth and Google Maps provide satellite images of areas to show change over time

Know why factories and industrial areas are often located near to ports

Know why the Suez Canal is important in terms of global trade

Know and understand the term 'deforestation' and how it links to animal extinction

Know some of the reasons why people nowadays choose particular new places to settle

Explain how the focus areas studied for food importation compare to your own locality

Know that Google Earth and Google Maps provide satellite images of areas

Know the role that a port plays in the transportation of goods around the world

Know where the Suez Canal is located and that it is a man-made waterway

Know and understand the terms 'import' and 'export' and how they links with trade

Know that, when people were finding somewhere to settle, they looked for a fresh water supply

Know that the largest exporters of cocoa are all equatorial and have large areas where people live in poverty

Know that both primary and secondary sources of evidence show process and change

Know and describe some human geographical features in the wider world

Know and describe some physical geographical features in the wider world

Know and understand key vocabulary related to geographical processes

Know and understand the interrelationship between location and environment

Understand how and why some places and features are similar or different, giving reasons

Processes and Changes

Human Geography

Physical Geography

Geographical Vocabulary

Locations and Environments

Similarities and Differences

Window on the World