

Geography Knowledge Building

Know that photographs and film footage is useful evidence when investigating the story of pollution in the Sao Paolo River	Describe some of the human geographical features of the countries studied and compare them	Describe some of the physical geographical features of the countries studied and compare them	Know and understand the terms 'urbanisation' and 'conservation' in relation to Scotland	Know that the very different climates in the three focus countries affects wildlife	Know the reasons for some of the differences between the features of the countries studied and your own locality
Know that maps and photographs can be used to find evidence of urbanisation and other changes to landscapes	Know some of the human geographical features in the focus locations e.g. Christ the Redeemer (Brazil)	Know some of the physical geographical features in the focus locations e.g. Loch Ness (Scotland)	Know and understand the terms 'deforestation' and 'water cycle' in relation to Brazil	Know that the geographical location of each of the countries studied dictates their climate	Know some of the differences between the features of the countries studied and your own locality
Know that both primary and secondary sources of evidence show process and change	Know and describe some human geographical features in the wider world	Know and describe some physical geographical features in the wider world	Know and understand key vocabulary related to geographical processes	Know and understand the interrelationship between location and environment	Understand how and why some places and features are similar or different, giving reasons
Processes and Changes	Human Geography	Physical Geography	Geographical Vocabulary	Locations and Environments	Similarities and Differences

Picture Our Planet