

Geography Knowledge Building

Know some of the ways in which the borders, landscape and human geography of countries has been changed by wars	Explain how the human geography of some of the areas studied might make them attractive to potential invaders	Explain how the physical geography of some of the areas studied might make them attractive to potential invaders	Know and understand the terms 'imperialism', 'conflict' and 'colonies'	Know some of the ways in which the countries studied compare to each other	Know some of the ways in which the countries defend their land and borders (e.g. border control, naval defence, air strikes)
Know that the landscape and human geography of countries has been changed by wars	Know that argument over territory is the main cause of conflict in many wars around the world	Know that the desire for land is a common cause of war between countries	Know and understand the words 'border(s)' and 'alliances'	Know some of the ways in which the focus countries compare to your locality	Know that different places use different strategies to prevent war, and understand some of the reasons for this
Understand the reasons for different processes and resulting changes in a range of locations	Recognise, understand and explain patterns in human geography	Understand how the physical geography of a place influences the lives of its inhabitants	Know and understand more technical vocabulary e.g. biome, climate zone	Compare and contrast diverse locations and environments	Understand why different places employ different strategies for solving similar problems
Processes and Changes	Human Geography	Physical Geography	Geographical Vocabulary	Locations and Environments	Similarities and Differences

Wars of the World