

History Knowledge Building

Know the chronological order of any human activity that has caused changes in the animal habitat you visit	Understand that the choices people have made over time has impacted on the lives of animal species	Understand the importance of learning from the past as we try and save endangered species now	Know and understand the meaning of AD and BC (relate to the extinction of the dinosaurs)	Know that some people have different opinions about hunting, one of the causes of extinction	Understand that similar beliefs have led to humans taking action to try to stop animal extinction
Know that some animal species lived in the past and are now extinct while some species are still alive	Understand that human activity has caused extinction	Understand why people choosing to hunt contributes to extinction	Know that the elephant bird became extinct centuries ago	Know that there is a range of evidence to show that extinction happens over time	Know that some human activity that was acceptable in the past is now illegal (e.g. egg theft)
Fit people and events into a chronological framework	Identify examples of growth and change over time	Recognise why actions and events happened	Understand and use language related to the measurement of time	Identify different ways in which the past is represented	Know about similarities and differences between societies, including beliefs
Chronology	Continuity and Change	Cause and Consequence	Historical Vocabulary	Perspectives and Interpretations	Similarities and Differences

Going Wild!