

History Knowledge Building

Know that European settlers came to America and began trading with the Inuits in the 1500s

Know how the way in which Inuits obtain food has changed over time

Understand how hunting influenced the movement of the Inuit population in the past

Know that a thousand years is known as a millenium

Know that the Inuits used to be known as eskimos and why the term 'eskimo' was thought of, by some, as being offensive

Know that the Inuits used to believe in 'animism' (that everything has a spirit, living and non-living)

The Inuit people arrived in North America between 6000 and 2000 BC / BCE

Know and understand how and why Inuits' homes have changed over time

Understand why the Inuits used to live in igloos during the winter

Know and understand the meaning of 'years' and 'centuries'

Know that ongoing traditions and customs represent the Inuits' past

Know about some of the elements of Inuit culture, including the arts

Fit people and events into a chronological framework

Identify examples of growth and change over time

Recognise why actions and events happened

Understand and use language related to the measurement of time

Identify different ways in which the past is represented

Know about similarities and differences between societies, including beliefs

Chronology

Continuity and Change

Cause and Consequence

Historical Vocabulary

Perspectives and Interpretations

Similarities and Differences

Come Fly With Me! Arctic Circle