

History Knowledge Building

Know some of the major changes to the Olympic Games that have taken place, within a chronological framework

Understand why there was so much conflict between Athens and Sparta

Know about some of the ways in which Ancient Greek culture changed the world e.g. sport, government

Know the meaning of the terms 'democracy' and 'conflict' and give examples

Know that there are different historical reasons given for the fall of the Ancient Greek empire

Know about Greek thinking and how this has impacted on Western society e.g. Pythagoras (Maths), Aristotle (Science)

Know when the Ancient Greek empire began and ended

Know some of the differences between life in Athens and Sparta

Know that Greek ideas spread and had a huge impact on Western society

Know and understand the meaning of the terms 'ancient', 'artefact', 'myths and legends'

Know that artefacts such as pottery and architecture help us interpret the past

Know how ancient Greek mythology affected everyday life

Establish clear narratives within periods of history

Make links between events and changes across and within periods

Identify the results of events, situations and changes

Understand and use a range of historical terminology, some linked to concepts

Understand that different versions of the past may exist, giving reasons for this

Compare and contrast a range of diverse societies

Chronology

Continuity and Change

Cause and Consequence

Historical Vocabulary

Perspectives and Interpretations

Similarities and Differences

Athens v Sparta