

History Knowledge Building

Know the sequence of key events in Walt Disney's career and how this impacted on the development of animation

Understand the reasons for the changes in the animation process

Understand the influence that Disney animations have had on Western culture over the past century

Understand the term 'diversity' and know how this has been represented through animation over time

Know that there has been criticism of the Disney Corporation and the reasons why e.g. racism business practices

Know that cultural and traditional stories are often used in animation and give examples

Know the chronology of animation: zoetrope, flip books, stop motion, film, models

Know that as technology developed in the 20th Century, so did animation

Know about the impact that changes in animation techniques have had

Know and understand the terms 'discovery' and 'development'

Know that Walt Disney had negative experiences, even though the portrayal of his past is largely positive

Know that flipbook animation has been used across many cultures and societies

Establish clear narratives within periods of history

Make links between events and changes across and within periods

Identify the results of events, situations and changes

Understand and use a range of historical terminology, some linked to concepts

Understand that different versions of the past may exist, giving reasons for this

Compare and contrast a range of diverse societies

Chronology

Continuity and Change

Cause and Consequence

Historical Vocabulary

Perspectives and Interpretations

Similarities and Differences

That's All, Folks!