

History Knowledge Building

Place communication inventions in an historical timeline

Know why methods of communication began to change 200 years ago

Know some of the main changes in technology that have come about through the invention of the World Wide Web

Understand the term 'causation' in the context of the development of the internet

Understand how Tim Berners-Lee's prophecies about the use of the World Wide Web have come true

Understand why different societies have different opinions regarding the use of the World Wide Web

Know that Tim Berners-Lee invented the World Wide Web in 1989

Know that methods of communication only began to change dramatically in the last 200 years

Understand why Tim Berners-Lee invented the World Wide Web

Know and understand the meaning of present day, centuries and decades

Know that some people view the World Wide Web as a positive thing, whereas others see it as negative

Know that some aspects of communication on the World Wide Web are banned in certain countries

Establish clear narratives within periods of history

Make links between events and changes across and within periods

Identify the results of events, situations and changes

Understand and use a range of historical terminology, some linked to concepts

Understand that different versions of the past may exist, giving reasons for this

Compare and contrast a range of diverse societies

Chronology

Continuity and Change

Cause and Consequence

Historical Vocabulary

Perspectives and Interpretations

Similarities and Differences

Lightning Speed